SEEKS TO REOPEN LABOR PARLEYS

Asks Why Government's Offer Was Rejected in Formal Note

HOPEFUL SIGNS YET

Labor Backing Miners—Wage Cut Would Be Disgrace to Trade Union They Say

Washington, April 14.—President Harding will take no step in the direction of partial ratification of the Versailles Treaty unless and until the Allied Powers first reconsider their award of Yap Island to Japan and acknowledge in full American rights in the disposition of all the confiscated territories of the Central Empires.

This disclosure was made authoritatively yesterday concurrently with the introduction in the Senate of the Knox resolution declaring peace with Germany, as revised and approved by the President. By means of this resolution it is planned to reestablish peace with Germany within the next three weeks.

Secretary of State Hughes is known to be supremely confident that the Allies will reconsider their denial of American rights, in the mandate territories. If, however, they should persist in their course of resisting the American contentions the Administration would regard the attitude an insuperable obstacle to negotiations with the Allies in regard to American ratification of the reparations, economic and other features of the Versailles Treaty affecting the rights and interests of the United States.

The Allies, according to the Administration view, would be solely responsible for interposing obstacles to American acceptance of any part of the Versailles Treaty and the only feasible alternative would be the negotiation of separate peace terms with Germany.

Italy already has taken a position favorable to the American contentions, but Great Britain and Japan have not answered the Hughes note on Yap, and France has replied with a suggestion that this question be settled by Japan and the United States. Mr. Hughes holds that the controversy is with the Aliens jointly and he will entertain no suggestion to deal with Jopan alone.

Nor will the Administration consent to the inclusion of the Yap question in general negotiations to settle all matters at issue between the United States and Japan, as Tokio is reported to contemplate proposing. Mr. Hughes regards the Yap and general mandate questions distinct from all other issues and one in which the Allies are called upon to undo jointly what they have done jointly in defiance of American rights.

It transpired also that the projected renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty next July may become involved in the conversations between the United States and Great Britain as the Yap and general mandate question is not settled to the satisfaction of the United States. The inference is that the United States would review with disfavor a renewed alliance of two nations which continue to deny the United States its just right.

If, however, the Allies yield to the United States in this controversy Secretary Hughes will open negotiations to determine the most feasible means of accepting those parts of the Versailles Treaty in which the United States is interested. This might be done by sending a delegation to Europe or by calling a conference of the Allies in Washington.

It also is suggested that if it should appear impracticable for the United States to ratify the treaty with reservations, those parts acceptable to America might be embodied in a new treaty or treaties to be signed by the United States, the Allies and Germany.

The Foreign Relations Committee intends to consider the Knox resolution at once and report it to the Senate in time to press it to a vote as soon as the Colombian treaty is disposed of.

The Knox resolution as revised provides:

"That the declarations of war against Germany and Austria-Hungary are repealed.

"That German property in the hands of the United States Government shall be retained until provision is made in a treaty with Germany for the satisfaction of American claims for war damages.

"That until determined otherwise by treaty or act of Congress the United States reserves all the rights, powers, claims, privileges, indemnities, reparations or advantages stipulated for the benefit of America and Americans in the Versailles Treaty, including the right to enforce such benefits under the armistice terms."

Judge Waddill Being Boosted For Position

Richmond, Va., April 14.—At least four candidates are in the field for the position of judge of the United States District Court of Appeals, which was left vacant by the recent death of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, in Asheville, N. C.

Richmonders are boosting Judge Edmund Waddill, of the United States District Court, and will use every influence possible to have him elevated to the position. Another candidate is Louis P. Summers, of Abingdon, who has publicly announced that he will enter the race. North Carolinians are boosting William P. Bynum, while Maryland has put forward its candidate, Judge Rose.

In political circles the opinion is current that Judge Waddill is the most likely aspirant. A delegation will go to Washington this week to urge his appointment upon President Harding. He is senior district judge in the appellate circuit, embracing the States of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and North and South Carolina.

Judge Waddill is regarded as one of the greatest authorities in the country on admiralty law, and is held in the highest esteem by the legal profession. He has served twenty-three years on the Federal bench, having been appointed by President McKinley upon the retirement of Judge Robert W. Hughes.

He was admitted to the bar in 1877 and was named Judge of the Henrico County Court three years later at the age of 25 years. He served in this capacity until 1883, when he was appointed United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia by President Harrison. In 1885 he became a member of the House of Delegates, and was elected to Congress in 1889, serving one term. He has been United States district judge since March 22, 1898. His legal training was received at the University of Virginia.

Judge Waddill was a close personal friend of President McKinley, and he, with Colonel James J. Brady, managed the campaign of the Ohioan in Virginia during the contestin 1896.

There will be an important meeting of the reorganized stockholders of the Virginia Rapid Transit Company at Dreadnaught Hall on Wednesday evening, April 13th, 1921, at 8 o'clock. 87-2c

OPPORTUNITIES FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Four Presented to City School Board Last Night

WILL DECIDE APRIL 20.

School Teachers Urge Speedy Action on Proposition For Increase in Pay —Other Matters Presented.

A delegation of school teachers last night appeared before the city school board at the regular meeting of that body and urged prompt action on their request for an increase in salary. It was stated by the teachers to the board that city council had not yet acted on this matter. Assurances were given the teachers by the members of the board that the school trustees were unanimously in favor of the proposed increase and would do everything in their power to have speedy action taken on the matter by council. A delegation of women of the city represented by Mrs. Morris L. Horner and Mrs. H. B. Caton together with Messrs. Julian Y. Williams, Carroll Pierce and Howard W. Smith from the chamber of commerce presented a paper advocating three opportunities which would vitally increase the efficiency of the public school system.

They follow:

No. 1 offered by the Y. M. C. A., to place a course of physical education in the high school without cost for instruction.

No. 2, presented by the state board of education in its offer of $1,800 a year toward the salary of a supervisor of education to be associated with the present superintendent of schools.

No. 3, of introducing in the public schools vocational training through the acceptance of state aid to the extent of two-thirds of the cost for instruction.

To the foregoing Howard W. Smith suggested the addition of a fourth opportunity, namely domestic science. This suggestion was unanimously adopted by the committee and included in their request.

Mr. Williams explained that the chamber of commerce is earnestly interested in the public schools and is ready and anxious to help in any way to advance Alexandria and make it a more desirable place in which to reside. He assured the board for full cooperation and development on the part of that organization for the schools. An address along the same lines was made by Carroll Pierce. Among other things he suggested the schools were not getting their full share of the city's revenue, adding that the schools and churches are the educational index of a city.

Remarks also were made by Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Caton and Mr. Smith. The board has called a meeting for April 20 for the purpose of considering these matters and it is hoped at that time to have the state superintendent of public education present to obtain his views on the matters to be acted on.

The board fixed upon June 16, 17 and 18 for the annual summer closing of the public schools.

The sum of $260 was appropriated towards the expense of conducting a six weeks summer school. It was also decided to send R. C. Haydon, principal, to the annual meeting of school principals which will be held in Charlottesville April 29. The board received an invitation to attend the exercises at the Parker-Gray school Sunday afternoon. A check for $100 was received from the alumni of Hallowell school to help defray the expense of the purchase of curtains for that school.

The committee on school houses and furniture was authorized to make necessary improvements to toilets and plumbing in West End School. A complaint against a teacher was referred to the superintendent for investigation. A number of bills were audited, approved and ordered paid. Other business of a routine nature also was disposed of.

Attending the meeting were Dr. S. B. Moore, chairman; and Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater, Charles E. Tennesson, Gilbert J. Cox, S. H. Lunt, James Bayne, C. E. Dare, Calvert Ferry, Dr. Llewellyn Powell, Ashby Blaeden and Robert Colvin.

Retail Merchants Also Indorse Proposed Bond Issue for $600,000

At a well attended and interesting meeting of the Retail Merchants Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce held in the chamber auditorium last night a motion was carried inviting S. H. Talks, secretary of the Associated Credit Men of Washington affiliated with the national organization, to be present at the next meeting of the bureau Wednesday evening April 27 when Mr. Talks will outline the purpose of the formation of a local Retail Credit Men's association affiliated with the national. Several of the merchants who were present expressed their interest in the idea and with the view of determining more in detail the character of such an association this action was taken.

Numerous reports of committees were read and approved some of which resulted in lively discussion with nearly all of the 30 odd merchants present taking part. After a lenthly discussion, a motion was passed to the effect that the bureau was very much in favor of the establishment of public playgrounds in the city for the benefit of the children as an effective means for civic health betterment. Also sentiment was expressed in favor of the mayor's recent recommendation for a $600,000 bond issue.

TO RUSH RESOLUTION

Britain and Japan Silent—Near Parley is Likely—What Knox Seeks —New Parley Likely

London, April 14.—Premier Lloyd George has provided the leaders of the Triple Alliance with another opening for renewal of negotiations in the miners' strike and the general strike of railway men and transport workers in support of it by asking, in a formal note to the leaders, for the grounds of their refusal of the Government's offer.

The Triple Alliance was in session late last night and it is understood a formal answer will be handed the Premier today.

Any influence the labor leaders who are outside the orbit of the actual conflict may be able to exert on the disputants seems for the moment to be the remaining slender thread upon which industrial peace hangs.

The Premier's letter to the Triple Alliance was sent by special messenger after a full meeting of the Cabinet last night, and after the formal council Lord Birkenhead, Sir Robert S. Horne and Sir Eric Geddes remained long in consultation with the Prime Minister.

Mr. Hodges, secretary of the miners' union, last night denied the statement in the Standard that the miners would refuse to enter into further negotiations.

"The federation," he added, "is always willing to negotiate and in fact negotiations must resume some time."

Meetings have been called for tomorrow of the Parliamentary labor party and other similar bodies and also of the federation of general workers, representing 1,500,000 workers in more than 100 industries outside the Triple Alliance to decide their attitude.

Offers of American coal were received at Belfast today at $13 per ton delivered, which is about the price of the best Yorkshire coal. Offers of French coal, 58 shillings per ton delivered, were also received.

Organized labor is steadily consolidating on the side of the miners. The Amalgamated Society of Locomotive Men and Firemen, whose attitude previously had been doubtful, decided yesterday to strike with the Triple Alliance. The executive of the Railway Clerk's Association also recommended joining the strike. The electrical workers of London, but not of the whole kingdom, threaten to strike.

There is still some question as to whether a strike of all the members of the Triple Alliance is possible Friday. According to the constitutions of the respective sections, the railway men may be called upon to strike without a ballot, but the transport workers are required to take a ballot before a strike is called. Many of the unions, which are taking a referendum last night, are voting largely against a strike.

A manifesto issued late today by the Triple Alliance in which this body emphatically supports the miners' claims, contends that such reductions in the miners' earnings "no trade union in the past ever accepted" and declares that, if accepted, "it would be a disgrace to trade unionism of the world."

It continues: "The Miners' Federation fully realizes that the present position of the industry is as bad as it has ever been in its history. They are prepared to do their share in helping the industry by accepting a reduction in wages of a national and uniform character, but not such as will reduce the miners below their prewar standard of living.

"We are fighting for trade union rights as they are understood by all national organizations. We resent the suggestion made in Government quarters that the miners fight is a political one. We are not proclaiming revolution; we are standing shoulder to shoulder for fundamental trade union rights. If these are denied us now they will be denied the whole trade union movement later."

The first statements respecting the grounds of the miners' refusal of the Government's offer was signed by Herbert Smith, president of the federation, and Frank Hodges, secretary. It shows that the rejection was due to the Government's refusal to concede a national pool of mining profits which, the statement declares, is "the one essential condition of settlement".

Methodist Women

Thirty-Eight States Represented at Gathering

Richmond, Va., April 14.—One of the largest woman's gatherings in the history of Richmond was held last night in the Centenary Methodist Church, when the eleventh annual session of the Woman's Missionary Council, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened.

Several hundred delegates representing thirty-eight States of the Union were present, including representative of the score of auxiliary councils of Southern States and the Middle West section as far North as the Canadian border. The president of all thirty-eight States were also present at the gathering.

The convention is being held in Richmond for the first time and the Centenary Church, meeting place of the council sessions, was decorated with palms and flags in honor of the workers and the foreign missionaries who were present at the gathering. An improvised platform was erected at the front of the church on which were seated deaconeses from all sections of the country and missionaries representing every foreign field: Korea, China, Japan, Asia, Africa, South America and other nations were represented by workers who had spent many years of their lives in foreign countries.

On one end of the platform sat an old gray haired lady who had gone to China as a missionary in 1858, and returned to the United States for the first time this year. The China Council was represented by two Chinese girls. Miss Me Tsung Dong, a graduate of McTyeire School, Shanghai, China and at present a student at Ann Harbor, Michigan, and Miss Kuc Tau Wang, who receives her degree in June from the Chicago University are being entertained locally during their stay. Miss Wang is also a graduate of McTyeire School and is the daughter of the first indemnity student who came to America after the Boxer rebellion.

Rev. Thomas A. Smoot, D. D., pastor of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, conducted the devotional services and extended to the visitors welcome to the city. Dr. Smoot in tendering to the workers the keys to the church and the city, spoke of the true Richmond, Virginia, Methodist hospitality, of which the visitors had heard and with which they would now meet.

The Woman's Missionary Council devides its House Mission work into two divisions, the territory west of the Mississippi, and a part of Kentucky and Tennessee, which is known as the Western division, and the territory east of the Mississippi River and extending from the Florida Peninsula to the Ohio River, which is known as the Eastern and Gulf division.

$500,000,000 TAX OWED BY DODGERS

Revenue Bureau Begins Drive on Evaders of Levy

MACHINERY IN ORDER

Organization May be Extended to Insure Collection of Extra Billion in a Year

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Nearly $500,000,000 in addition to the regular revenues will be collected by the government this year. Internal Revenue bureau officials said yesterday, in a drive against tax dodgers and persons and concerns who made fraudulent and wrongful returns.

This gigantic additional tax collection is equal to half of the annual interest on the national debt.

Eight thousand auditors, clerks and examiners in Washington and scattered through the United States are engaging in the work of collection and examination of tax returns. They are being directed from Washington by E. H. Batson, acting deputy commissioner of internal revenue in charge of the income tax unit.

The internal revenue bureau has been perfecting the machinery for the work for several months. Although it has been functioning for more than a year in the examination of returns for error and fraud, the machine now is believed to be at its highest point of efficiency under the present form of organization.

Officials are anxiously awaiting the appointment by President Harding of the new commissioner of internal revenue. The new commissioner may consent to an extension of the work of audit and examination of returns. The amounts that may be got into the government purse from this source is almost unlimited with proper organization and extension of the work, it is said. One estimate places the amount that may be collected at $1,000,000,000 a year. This is twice the amount that the organization now is geared up to bring in.

The special examination of returns last year yielded slightly more than $420,000,000, or about $35,000,000 a month. This sum was obtained from an examination mainly of the 1917 returns, although some for 1918 were included. The examination yet has to be begun for 1919 and 1920. By the time the returns for these years are reached, the total annual collections may run $70,000,000 a month, it is believed.

The internal revenue bureau officials who make the final audit or examination give most attention to returns of large taxpayers, and especially of large business concerns and corporations. It is in the latter rather than in the individual return that the most errors are made, and consequently from these that the largest collections of additional taxes come. The returns of corporations are highly technical and specially trained auditors are needed to inspect them. The internal revenue bureau has experienced great difficulty in keeping many of these trained men because of the small salaries which the government was able to pay in comparison with the compensation offered by private concerns.

It is likely that Congress will be asked to authorize payment of larger salaries for experts in the tax unit. Tax collection now costs about 53 cents for each $100 brought into the Treasury, a ratio that includes prohibition enforcement and enforcement of the antinarcotic and child labor laws. The total cost of operating the bureau is about $29,000,000 a year.

Philip Drunk and Philip Sober.

The United States Senate has devoted the opening days of the Sixty Seventh Congress to a discussion of the treaty with Columbia, under which America agrees to pay to the little South American country millions of dollars for damage alleged to have been suffered during the revolution of Panama.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, the arch-conspirator in the defeat of the Treaty of Versailles, Tuesday made a very pretentious speech advocating the ratification of the treaty. Submitted to the United States Senate by Woodrow Wilson, this treaty to Senator Lodge was a piece of "blackmail," an "outrage," a "hold-up" and every thing that could be dishonorable and thoroughly bad. Now submitted by a Republican President, this same treaty suddenly becomes the personification of all the virtues of justice and righteousness in international relations. Of course what has really happened is that the Senator from Massachusetts has changed roles from that of leading a partisan opposition to that of advocating and supporting a partisan program. Philip drunk has in the cold grey morning after of responsibility become Philip sober. It must be said whether it can be held complimentary or not, that Mr. Lodge's new role is much better than his old one. The public by this time should be well accustomed to these sudden shifts of masks and costumes which the eminent charlatan of Back Bay makes. Once the leading advocate of a League of Nations, the jewel of his consistency shone not so bright but that he felt able to obliterate his whole past on the subject and snuff it out with every puff of mind and lung which he could command. Having taken two positions on the League, two on the Columbian treaty and two on practically everything else that has ever been a public issue, who knows but that Henry Cabot Lodge may yet come to be known in American history as the original and only Mr. Facer Both-Ways.

Mr. Knox and His Sprinkling Can.

If in the midst of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, the mayor and police of the city had smashed the fire department and called in a gardener with a sprinkling can to put out the flames, they would have done nothing more foolish and futile than the Republicans are now preparing to do. Having shattered the Treaty of Versailles into a thousand pieces, so far as ending the war between this country and Germany is concerned, they are now getting ready to call in Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania with his little technical peace resolution again. By merely saying peace as one would say "bricklebrit" in a fairy story, they imagine themselves capable of making peace.

Nothing is farther from the truth. The passage of every twenty four hours has made it increasingly plain that whether we like them or no, we have got to accept the decisions made by the Paris Peace conference, certainly with reference to the practical details of peace, and very possibly with reference even to the League of Nations. President Harding admitted the first in his address to Congress and almost between lines admitted the second.

The Republicans would do well to forget Mr. Knox and his sprinkling can and turn to the fire department and the Treaty of Versailles.

Language is made to conceal thought, it has been said, which leads a contemporary to observe that President Harding is a splendid linguist, judging by his first message to Congress. Not necessarily so. It would not stretch any language to cover and conceal the thought in that message.

One should worry about the British strike with strikes being called on Ty Cobb and a few other of our best batters every day.

Something will have to be done with a local wag who has a special pet duck and has named him "General Sawyer" and painted a star on his bill. He says every time the duck goes "Quack, Quack" he thinks of the new White House general.

The President's Message.

President Harding's first message to the Congress of the United States was of moderate length, containing 6280 words. It was couched in moderate language, making not the slightest pretense at any point to fine rhetoric. It dealt in a moderate way with practically every issue of the day from lynching to the league of nations, committing neither the President nor his administration to any uncompromising stand on any of them. Its key-note from beginning to end was moderation.

Of those whose wishes are fathers to their thoughts, some will pronounce the message a great piece of statesmanship and others will denounce it as an empty and meaningless editorial on the issues of the day. It is neither. It is a very painstaking, conscientious effort on the part of a comparatively mediocre President to perform a constitutional function in a dignified, worthy and comprehensive manner. As such it is more of a success than it is a failure.

The message started off happily with a plea for economy in the conduct of the government and a lifting of the burden of war taxation, went from there to emergency tariff legislation, took up next the proposal for a national budget system, touched on the condition of the railroads of the country and drifted logically thence into the question of good roads. It covered as well a long series of subjects, including the development of a merchant marine, a Congressional inquiry into prices and profiteering, better treatment for the disabled veterans of the World War, the encouragement of civil and military aviation and the suppression of lynching.

In handling all the questions mentioned above, Mr. Harding's recommendations to the Congress were so indefinite that there can be little pronounced opposition to them and little fever heat enthusiasm for them.

It was when Mr. Harding came to the international relations of the country, world peace, the Versailles treaty and the League of Nations, that he struck what it becomes every day increasingly evident is to be the snag of his administration. Vague and moderate as is all the remainder of his message, it is at least sensible and superficially logical. Not so however with his treatment of international affairs, the treaty and the league. He flounders about hopelessly and helplessly like a drowning man after imaginary straws. There is to be no separate peace with Germany and yet there is to be a Congressional resolution to restore technical peace. We must accept the provisions of the Versailles treaty excepting the league, but we must not say so on paper. We will have no part in the league of nations but we will work for an association of nations based on co-operation and mutual helpfulness.

That jumble and jargon of international policy, the Republicans all rose in their chairs and applauded with bravos that may yet prove to be whistlings in their own graveyard. For it is recorded that the Democrats at this point, though liberal in their applause at all others, remained silent in their seats. And the ranks of the silent will grow as it becomes more and more apparent that the only constitutional way to end a war is by a treaty of peace negotiated by the President of the United States and ratified by a two thirds vote of the United States Senate.

MURDERER REFUSES TO DIE BY DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Chicago, April 14.—Sam Cardinella, sentenced to hang Friday for a series of holdup murders, is fussy about time and desires to prolong his life to the uttermost second. Chicago now has daylight saving time.

"When am I going to be hanged?" he inquired yesterday to Jailer Meisterheim.

"Friday morning at 8 o'clock," said Meisterheim.

"Central, Standard or Chicago time?" asked Cardinella.

"Chicago time."

"But I was sentenced before the time was changed. This rearrangement deprives me of an hour of life. That won't mean anything after I'm dead, but it will mean a lot Friday morning. The Governor can change his mind in that time."

The jail officials granted the plea. The hanging will take place at nine o'clock.

FIRE THREATENS LANDMARK

Boston, April 14.—Fire last night threatened for a time to destroy the old State House, at Washington and State streets, landmark of the days of the American Revolution and earlier, and the priceless records stored there.

The old State House was erected in 1748, succeeding two other structures that had been burned.

Tornado Twists Melissa, Texas; Five Killed; Over 25 Injured

McKinney, Texas, April 14.—Five persons were killed and more than 25 others injured, some probably fatally, when a tornado swept down from the west on Melissa, near here, yesterday. Fire followed in the debris of the buildings razed by the twister and virtually the entire business district, except the bank and the east side of the town, were destroyed.

The tornado unroofed the school building, in which about 240 children were at classes, also caving in the west walls. The teachers, however, marshaled their charges into the basement and no one was hurt.

The tornado originated near Franklin, six miles west of Melissa, swept eastward, destroying farm buildings along the way at Boland and Chambersville.

The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Loftice was killed in her mother's arms by a flying piece of scantling. The mother was not injured.

Chicago Plans to Tax All Workers In City by License Plan

Chicago, April 14.—Every man and woman in Chicago, engaged in a gainful vocation, professional or business would be required to take out a city license to work and pay the city a fee, under plans for meeting the city deficit which have been worked out at the City Hall. Estimates accompanying the program are that a minimum of $15,000,000, more than enough to make up the city's deficit in revenue can be raised from the working people of the city by the licensing method.

Dr. Gottfried Koehler, chairman of the City Revenue Commission, today, returned from Springfield, the State capital, with the word that he had succeeded in having the enabling legislation, necessary for the new licensing plan, placed before the State Legislature. He reported the prospects for its passage as good.

Alderman A. J. Carmack, retiring head of the Council Committee on Revenue, declared today that the city's revenue difficulties would be ended should the enabling act be passed.

"Carpenters, plumbers, stenographers, lawyers, actors, in fact, every one engaged in a gainful occupation professional or business, can be licensed under its terms," said Alderman Carmeck. "It offers the most extensive powers of revenue raising ever proposed in behalf of a city."

MRS. PULITZER ROBBED

Paris, April 14.—Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, widow of the American publisher, and her companion, Miss Maude Alice Macarow, were victims of a robbery on a train on it sway from Cannes to Paris last night, says the Continental edition of The Daily Mail.

Miss Macarow awoke during the night and saw a man fumbling at her baggage. He fled, dropping a jewel case, but carrying with him a valuable gold clock.

Miss Macarow pursued the intruder down the corridor of the car, but the man escaped.

How a prospective mother prepared for baby's coming

Of all the vital adventures in life, the birth of a baby is the climax of nature's most wonderful evolution.

During this period, nature is supposed to be preparing the internal organism of a woman for a safe and speedy delivery; but it is more the exception than the rule when nature, unaided, performs her part at the crisis in a manner to relieve pain and contribute to comfort.

"I was afraid," writes a prospective mother, "until an experienced mother told me about MOTHER'S FRIEND,"

"—but now I cannot recommend MOTHER'S FRIEND too highly for I know it helped me wonderfully, and I can almost say my baby was born without pain. At the present time I am using it again, as I do not want to go thru the ordeal without it."

Three generations of prospective mothers have used MOTHER'S FRIEND. When gently applied, during the period of expectancy, it soothes the fine net-work of nerves, lubricates the broad, flat, abdominal muscles and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

Bread is the "Staff of Life" only when it is 100 per cent Nutritious

Just the same as you discriminate in the quality of the garments you wear, or the fuel you burn, or the books you read---so you must discriminate in the choice of the bread you eat. This is most important of all--because it under-writes health and strength and vitality.

Emphasis is laid on the careful selection of ingredients used in CORBY BREAD---for the reason that upon their scientific choice rests the superior character of this BREAD. It insures 100 per cent purity as well as 100 per cent nutrition.

Stress is also laid upon the manner of mixing the doughs for CORBY BREAD—for the reason that only with the patented mixers can ALL the gluten strength of the flour be developed—and thereby ALL the nutritive value be enjoyed. And for good measure unusual quantities of rich milk are added to the CORBY formulas.

Careful discrimination will lead you to decide in favor of CORBY BREAD—and your experience with it will prove that it is always the same day after day---SATISFACTORY—SUPERIOR.

Corby Bread is made right here in Alexandria and delivered fresh from the ovens to your grocer or delicatessen.

Pure as Mother Made It.

Penna. Man Gets $10,000
For Loss of Wife's Love

Philadelphia, April 14.—A $10,000 award for the loss of his wife's love was given by a jury at Media yesterday to Thomas H. Harkins, who sued Frederick G. Jones, a former boarder in the Harkins home. The verdict was for the full amount asked by Harkins. Counsel for Jones moved for an arrest of judgment.

Testimony that Jones had washed dishes and cooked for Mrs. Harkins and that he had massaged her scalp and combed her hair was given at the trial.

Mrs. Harkins' sons, 16 and 17 years old, who were the principal witnesses for the defense, indignantly defended their mother's character. Both unflinchingly testified to their mother's fidelity to their estranged father and to his alleged efforts to defame her character when he met them in Philadelphia following his departure from the Harkins home in 1919.

How It Started

LIBRARIES.

THE forerunner of the modern libraries were the collections of manuscripts and clay tablets which the ancients made. The literary library of Ashbrubanipal at Nineveh dates back to 668-626 B. C. Other libraries and collections of Archives have been discovered at Nippur, Babylon, Larsa, Evech, and other lost cities. Some of these seem to date back to almost 2000 B. C.

AVOIDING CATARRH

A WOMAN wrote to me recently and said she had suffered from catarrh for many years and was getting gradually deaf. She wanted some remedy, and asked if catarrh was curable. I gave her all the advice I could, but such cases of course, become too serious to be handled by one whose specialty is general health and looks, and I told her to go to a physician.

For catarrh is curable, and anyone who suffers from the least trace of this annoying affliction should start at once to cure themselves. If possible, they should go to a high or dry climate and live where fir and pine trees grow thick, since nothing is more effective than breathing the pine-scented air every day. If for any reason this is impossible, they should plant their yards full of pine trees, and put up window boxes filled with dwarf pines and firs, so the air coming through the windows bears the healing scent. For city dwellers this is especially good.

The nose and throat should be sprayed twice daily with some antiseptic solution, preferably one given by a doctor who understands the case. Anything with pine in it is sure to be effective. This treatment will cure any mild case of catarrh, advanced cases need a different form of treatment. Though living among the pines will cure anyone, they say.

The principle is to keep the throat and nose clean, to kill the poisonous formations, and so, to build up a stronger throat.

Reds Suppress Lenine Confession of Despair

Riga, Letvia, April 14.—The extraordinary commission to combat the counter-revolutionary movement in Soviet Russia recently refused to permit publication of a number of speeches made by Nikolai Lenine, the Soviet Premier, and also confiscated a pamphlet he wrote in which he is reported to have said he had lost all hope for the revolution and that he personally was tired of it all.

Reports of this censorship and confiscation reached Riga yesterday from an exceptionally well informed source in Moscow. The reports further are borne out by the Kronstadt Isvestia, a newspaper published by the defenders of Kronstadt during the revolt, which refers to the otherwise unpublished Lenine speech as being to the same effect.

What would you do with it?

If constipation were a lighted bomb, would you carry it about with you waiting for someone to put it out? No. You would get rid of it as quickly and effectively as possible.

But constipation, though not so sudden in its effect, is an insidious and grave danger. Leading medical authorities agree that ninety per cent of human illness is caused or aggravated by a clogging of waste in the bowels, and that pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force the bowels and bring greater weakness afterward.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol trade mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger".

Dyspepsia Is Greatest Enemy Of Modern Man

Distressing Malady is Most Prevalent of All Present-Day Diseases—Thousands Are Relieved by Tanlac.

Of all the conditions that afflict humanity, chronic dyspepsia, or what is more commonly known as indigestion, is probably the most prevalent.

This most universal malady has baffled the medical profession for years, and the most skillful specialists have been unable to cope with it successfully.

Hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and physical, of the sufferers from chronic dyspepsia and their failure heretofore to get relief. A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, aside from the nervousness and physical suffering, is the usual condition of the average dyspeptic.

Dyspepsia, or indigestion, as the case may be, is usually caused by the eating of too much or unsuitable food and the mucous membrane of the stomach becomes irritated, and there is set up an acute or sub-acute gastric catarrhal condition which prevents the proper digestion of the food. This food is apt to ferment and decompose, and as a result the familiar distressing symptoms of dyspepsia may arise. In mild cases there is nothing more than an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach ,with a certain amount of depression, headache, loss of appetite, perhaps belching of gas and occasional vomiting. There may be also accompanying intestinal symptoms, such as constipation, pains in the back, colic, etc. There may be only the familiar heartburn due to the inflammation of the stomach from excessive gases of fermentation or putrefaction. In the most severe cases—those that last over a day or two—the symptoms enumerated may be much more intense. The distress may be marked and the general constitutional symptoms more evident. When this stage is reached the loss of appetite, the mental depression, and the general uncomfortable feeling in the stomach are much more pronounced. This is particularly true in acute gastritis.

It frequently occurs from continued errors in diet that this condition becomes chronic and the symptoms persist for an indefinite period. The appetite is very apt to be varied, but at times very good. Heartburn is frequent ,if not constant. The stomach is painful on pressure, the tongue is coated, there is a bad taste in the mouth, and there are changes in the amount of salivary secretion. Constipation is also usually present, although diarrhoea may alternate.

Most cases of dyspepsia can be cured if the diet is properly looked after and with the proper treatment. Proper eating, the proper amount of food and hygienic living are the most important features of the treatment. Most people eat too fast and eat too much.

One noted authority has said that the stomach is the fountain head of health or disease, as the case may be. Tanlac was designed primarily for the regulation of the stomach, liver and bowels, but it is no uncommon thing for persons who have used it to find that they have also been relieved of rheumatism and other ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach strouble.

There is probably not a single portion of the body that is not benefitted by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system. Next it enables the weak, worn out stomach to thoroughly digest the food, permitting the assimilation of the nourishing elements.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by the Tanlac treatment after other remedies had failed but many of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a return to normal health and strength by its use.

Man Smoking, Leaps off Brooklyn Bridge as Cameras Click

New York, April 11.—While motion picture cameras clicked on the deck of a tug in the East river yesterday, Daniel Carone, 27, of Mount Vernon, puffing a cigarette, leaped from the center of Brooklyn bridge and was picked up in the water, 133 feet below alive, and unharmed. It was his second jump from the structure, the first being made in 1915.

A policeman saw Carone spring from an automobile on the south roadway and climb a steel girder. He shouted and ran toward him, but before he could reach him Carone plunged into space.

Carone said he also had jumped tug saw his body strike the water. He soon appeared and began to swim toward the tug. In 50 strokes he had reached the craft and was hauled aboard amid cheers.

Carone said he also had jumped off London bridge and High bridge in Glasgow, Scotland.

Senators Approve Firm Tone of Resolution

Washington, April 14.—Members of the Senate express approval generally of the wording of the Knox Peace resolution as offered yesterday. They declared that it defined the rights of the nationals of the United States in unmistakable terms, and were especially gratified that the tentative suggestions along that line contained in the original resolution had been abandoned in favor of stronger language.

The emphatic stand taken in the second section of the new resolution which changes the "does not waive" attitude of the former resolution into the "reserves all rights" of the present document, they maintain is notice that the United States intends to take its full share of responsibility and power accuring to it as one of the Allied nations.

They take the attitude that unmistakable notice should be given to the enemy countries and their people of our intentions to maintain our rights and agree that the Knox resolution would make possible the forward step in commercial and semi-diplomatic negotiations that are so necessary for the solution of domestic as well as foreign problems.

SEES WORK FOR 700,000 ON THE NATION'S HIGHWAYS

New York, April 14.—Seven hundred thousand men now unemployed can be used this year in building 40,000 miles of new highways embodied in the nation's "billion dollar road building program," J. R. Draney, president of the Asphalt Association, declared here yesterday in an address at the organization's annual meeting.

He added that the road building program, if not curtailed, also will place in service many thousand freight cars that are now idle and will increase freight tonnage to the extent of 100,000,000 tons and yield the railroad's revenue in excess of $100,000,000 on road material alone.

Resolutions adopted by the convention urged that highway construction and management be divorced from politics; that all materials and methods entering into road building be placed in open competition and that every proposed highway be required to show traffic justification for an appropriation to construct it in order to guard against overbuilding and waste.

MUST RECKON WITH U. S. LEAGUE OFFICIALS TOLD

Paris, April 14.—Officials of the League of Nations have received instructions, says the Echo de Paris, to reduce their undertakings in order that the "misunderstanding existing with the United States" may not be widened.

NO $1,000,000 FOR HER, PEGGY JOYCE RETORTS

New York, April 14.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce, speaking through the closed door of her apartment—nobody could induce her to open that door—declared to a reporter that $1,000,000 is a modest estimate of what it will cost her husband, J. Stanley Joyce, to untie the martial knot. She was quoted in a morning paper as offering Joyce "a divorce for a million."

"I wasn't interviewed by the paper at all," she said, "but it is true that I'll get $1,000,000 and considerably more before my husband is freed of me. I can promise some startling things about him if it comes to a show down."

She said her lawyer would do whatever talking there was to be done for her.

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Pain Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiless and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

After Doctoring Two Years Chasco-Vin Brought Quick Results

"You can count on me to always sound the praises of Chasco-Vin, because it brought results for me. For two years I was in a very bad state of health. I suffered from nervous spells and stomach trouble along with a general run-down system.

During the two years I doctored nearly all the time but didn't seem to get much better. Your Chasco-Vin was recommended to me and I tried it It began to show results almost right away, Before I had finished the first bottle I was much better, but I kept right on until now I have taken five bottles of it. I certainly feel fine and think it is a wonderful building-up medicine." Mrs. Brown, 141 Mt. Vernon St., Camden, N. J.

New York, April 14.—Serenaded by the municipal bands and the screech of hundreds of steamship whistles, Cardinal Denis J. Wheeler Urges Stop Of Beer as Medicine

Washington, April 14.—Prohibition of beer as a medicine and steps to reduce the Nation's supply of spiritous liquors to "250,000 gallons or some reasonable amount," were urged by Wayne B. Wheeler, legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League today in outlining the league's programme to a legislative conference of representatives of a score of national temperance organizations. The beer prohibition was necessary, he said, "because of Mr. Palmer's beer opinion."

To reduce the supply of liquor, Mr. Wheeler proposed a five-year embargo on importation or manufacture. He also urged authority to concentrate the existing stock in fewer warehouses and indorsed alcohol as a base for making medicinal preparations, the statement saying "this would cut out wine and whisky, which increases the potability of medicines." Alcohol to be used in medicines, however, it added, should be made unfit for beverage use when it left the factory.

NEW YORK TO PERPETUATE POLICE SERGEANT'S VALOR

New York, April 14.—Police Lieut Lloyd Horton, who killed an auto bandit several months ago and took down the number of the car as he lay in a gutter, mortally wounded, has been canonized as one of the great heroes of the New York police department in posthumous recognition of conduct.

Horton's name led the year's list of heroes. It is to be placed in police headquarters, reserved for men killed in the line of duty.

NOTHING WRONG EXCEPT "RUN DOWN"

Heart All Right—Lungs All Right But Blood Weak

NO ENERGY OR ENTHUSIASM

That's When You Need Pepto-Mangan The Red Blood Builder

When you feel weak and almost sick see a doctor and find out what is wrong.

It may be a serious illness. But in many cases the doctor finds nothing really wrong except a general run-down condition due to the need of stronger, richer blood.

For over thirty years physicians have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan to restore weakened blood to its normal healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan imparts to the blood the elements it needs to build up vigorous men and women. Children whose blood is impoverished become listless and pale and fail to romp. Pepto-Mangan creates a supply of nourishing red blood that makes the cheeks glow, the eyes sparkle and brings back the energy for play or studies.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, which ever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's". Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there it is not Pepto-Mangan.

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous wastes. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually. 15c and 30c

NONE BETTER
Foley's Honey and Tar
is an old reliable family medicine for the relief of cold, cough, spasmodic croup, tickling throat, hoarseness, whooping cough, bronchial cough and the croup that lingers after the "flu." Made of clean, wholesome and tasteful pine tar and demulcent honey of the bees. Contains no opiates.

Mrs. Eva M. Church, 39 Howard St., New London, Conn. writes this: "When I feel a cold coming on I go right to taking Foley's Honey and Tar. I have used it for a number of years and always with good results."

Paint your house with SWP

THE above picture shows that one gallon of SWP house paint covers 360 square feet of surface, two coats. Ordinary paint covers from 200 to 250 square feet. That is the first saving. SWP, though heavy-bodied, flows easily and evenly, thus cutting down the time required to apply it. That is the second saving.

SWP outlasts two or three paintings with ordinary paint, saving the cost of materials for repainting and also saving the labor cost which is about 75 per cent of the total expense.

In buying paint it's the area a gallon covers, not the cost per gallon, that determines its economy.

We carry a complete line of SWP. If you plan to paint your house, let us help you.
